

COUNCIL AND COMMITTEES TIME COMMITMENTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

College Council will carry out its responsibilities to:

- Uphold the College's responsibilities in protecting the public;
- Maintain a working knowledge of the legislation under which the College operates;
- Read and become familiar with the College's By-Laws and governance policies;
- Stay current on issues and events important to the profession and its stakeholders;
- Prepare for each Council meeting by reviewing meeting materials in order to understand the topics to be discussed, and the implications of policy and directional decisions;
- Attend each Council meeting and debate issues and policies pertaining to the College's mandate. Once a decision has been taken, align fully with the decision and uphold its implementation;
- Adhere to, respect and model behaviour described in the Council Code of Conduct, Conflict of Interest Policy and Confidentiality Policy;
- Apply prudent and responsible thinking to the management of the affairs of the College in order that fiscally sound policies are applied in safeguarding the College's assets;
- Actively participate in the strategic as well as the short and long-term planning for the College;
- When appointed to the College committees, participate in the work of the committee toward the fulfillment of the purpose of the College;
- Ensure that appropriate succession planning of both Council leadership and the Registrar occurs so that the ongoing successful management of the College is maintained;
- Engage in the Council and meeting evaluation processes to maintain successful performance of Council meetings and members.

Time Commitment as a Member of Council

Each member of Council will be placed on one or more committees and will participate in Discipline Panels in addition to attending Council meetings. *Due to the pandemic, all meetings are held virtually until further notice.
